MEMORANDUM FOR THE ASS'T. DIRECTOR FOR OPERATIONS

Subject: Action by JIG and CIA Representatives on Intelligence Terms

Reference: (a) Your Memo dated 19 January 1948, same subject

1. I have endeavored to obtain an up-to-date copy, or advanced copy of the Joint Army-Navy Dictionary, but have ascertained through the CIA Liaison officer with the Joint Intelligence Group that there are not even proof sheets available at the present time and that no new edition will probably be issued for six months or so.

MEMORANDUM TO: Chief, ICAPS

Subject: Reference Memorandum by the Executive Director of CIA, dated 8 October 1948, "Action by JIG and CIG Representatives on Intelligence Terms" /

1. In compliance with the subject memorandum the Contact Branch wishes to issue copies of the paper to its field offices.

2. The memorandum refers to the Joint Army-Navy Dictionary for a number of the definitions of intelligence terms. The latest Joint Army-Navy Dictionary is in the process of being printed and will not be available for about six months.

Advance copy of proofs for CIA?

3. It would be appreciated if ICAPS could supply us with the appropriate definitions from the Joint Army-Navy Dictionary for issuance to Contact Branch Field Offices.
